

Day One – Wednesday 19th May, 2010

(Subject to change)

Full details, including the synopsis for the sessions can be viewed on the NISC website – www.nisc.org.uk.

11.00 To 17.30	Registration
12.30 To 13.30	Lunch (exhibition area)
	Theatre 1 (Chair – Gerry O’Neill)	Theatre 2 (Chair – Vernon Poole)
13.45	The Slackers Guide to the GSI Code of Connection Owen Birnie, Sapphire	Virtualisation Risks Rolf von Roessing, ISACA
14.15	Forensic Readiness Peter Readings, Major Petrochemical Company	Cloud Stewardship Economics: Securing the new Business Joe Swierzbinski, HP Labs
14.45	How Has the Legal Framework Changed Over the Last Decade Catherine Lamb, Muckle LLP	The Esoteric Approach to Surveillance Emma Shaw, Esoteric
15.15 To 16.00	Break (Refreshments will be served in the exhibition area)
16.00 To 17.15	Question Time: “How to secure an IS/IA culture in my organisation?” Chairman Alan Moffat, RSC2 Solutions Panellists Barry Taylor, CESG Peter Readings, Petrochemical Company Harvey Mattinson, National School of Government Bill Orme, Microsoft Owen Birnie, Sapphire ‘NISC Question Time provides delegates with a unique opportunity to quiz the UK’s leading experts on current issues affecting the security industry today. The answers of which, often spark a lively debate between the panellists. Delegates are asked to submit their questions before and during the event via text.’
19.30 To Late	Evening Meal and Entertainment in the Atrium ‘Delegates, their partners, NISC speakers and sponsors are welcome to join us for an evening meal and entertainment in the Atrium. Refreshments will be provided throughout the evening.’

Day Two – Thursday 20th May, 2010 (subject to change)

08.00	Registration
09.00	Chairman's Introduction: Alan Moffat, RSC2 Solutions / John Morrison, Sapphire
09.15	Christopher Graham – Information Commissioners Office
10.00	National Identity Service - A Risk and an Opportunity, Duncan Hine – Identity & Passport Service
10.45	Break (Refreshments will be served in the exhibition area)
	Theatre 1 (Chair – Gerry O'Neill)	Theatre 2 (Chair – Vernon Poole)
11.25	Defending the realm Phil Cracknell, Head of Information Security, King Abdullah University of Technology & Science	It's the Friday Fraud Syndrome Steve Mackle and Frank Nesbitt, Tait Walker Chartered Accountants
12.05	The Future of Security and its Impact on the NHS James Wood, NHS Connecting For Health	Selling IT Security as a Topic John Finch, Plymouth City Council
12.45	Lunch (lunch will be served in the exhibition area)
	Theatre 1 (Chair – Gerry O'Neill)	Theatre 2 (Chair – Vernon Poole)
13.45	Three Key Aspects to Managing Risk Associated with End Point Devices Andrew Turner, NHS Dumfries & Galloway	What You Will Need to Learn About Security to Succeed in the Next Decade, Or Even the Next 6 Months Paul Dorey, CSO Confidential
14.25	IA Policy - Making it Real Barry Taylor, CESG	IT in a Recession Dr Jim White, CA
15.05	Break (Refreshments will be served in the exhibition area)
15.45 To 16.45	Question Time: "100% Guaranteed Security – Is It a Reality?" Chairman Harvey Mattinson Vendor Panellists Norman Data McAfee 'How many times are you approached by vendors who guarantee you that their solution in the best on the market? Is there really such a thing as 100% secure? Delegates are invited to quiz the UK's leading security vendors during NISC question time. Delegates are asked to submit their questions before and during the event via text.'
16.50	Close
19.00	Coaches Depart 'Coaches depart hotel reception from 19:00 until 19:30 to Gala Dinner Venue'
19.30	Drinks Reception 'Delegates, their partners, speakers and sponsors, are invited to attend the NISC 11 drinks reception'
20.15	Evening Meal & Entertainment 'Join us in celebrating the 11 th Annual NISC Conference. Your evening meal and refreshments will be provided whilst enjoying some superb entertainment.'
23.30	Coaches Depart 'Coaches will return to the Fairmont Hotel between 23:30 and midnight'

Day Three – Friday 21st May, 2010
(Subject to change)

09.10	Chairman's Introduction (Alan Moffat / John Morrison)
09.20	Top Gun This is an abridged version of an IISP Top Gun workshop. This session is a scenario driven attack and defence exercise. It will encourage participants to bring their skills and experiences against a given case study. In doing so, it provides delegates with the opportunity to learn from one another.
10.40	Break (Refreshments will be served in the exhibition area)
11.20	Security v Identity - Bill Orme, Microsoft
12:00	Attacking Networks - Jess Garcia, SANS Institute
12.40	Close
12.50	Lunch